In the year 1900, in connection with the appointment of a Pujari to this temple, the question as to what lands the temple was receiving from Gram S. no. 111 was raised.

The land is in the enjoyment of Lakko Jowda and Linga Jowda, each enjoying half-a-share one-half of this land was sold in 1836 (Durmukhi Samvatsara) to Ranje Jowda, Gram Jostherup Lakko Jowda by Kada and others who were also aliences

The other half was alienated to Hatchanna (Date not known) from whom it passed to Pilegowda (Date not specified), who sold it in halves to Chikke Jowda in 1878.

Govt having recognised that in view of a large outlay being necessary in improving garden lands which requires a long period, they have in certain cases in the Malnad Dists sanctd. 10, 20 & even 30 years leases, and the longer term leases cancelled.

The same procedure may be followed, perhaps, in this case also and the Dy Comr asked to fix a 20 years lease, by the present occupants subject to Extension or Change at the end of that period. Further Extension of lease will depend upon the regular payt of the lease amt & temple of the Govt dues and the labour spent by the holders to improve the land

3. I enquired into the matter during the Jamabandy of Tiptur Town and both the alienees have given mutchalikas before me on 26th December 1919 undertaking to pay Rs.50/- each perpetually in addition to the Jodi if the land is permanently leased out to them.

4. According to Government Order No.517-25/Muz.115-16-6 dated 29th August 1917, the inam lands of Muzrai Institutions have to be leased generally for a period not exceeding 5 years. Indefinite and long leases have to be converted into definite period leases. In the present case, the Inam land is bagayat and it is detrimental to the interests of the temple to lease such lands for only a period of 5 years, as in such a case there will be unhealthy competition and the lessee may not care to improve the land owing to the risk of somebody else getting it for the next period of lease.

5. Under such circumstances, the leases of garden inam lands should be either permanent or for a long period. In the present case, the fair amount of Rs.100/- is quite reasonable and I recommend that the land may be permanently leased out to the present occupants subject to their paying Rs.50. each in addition to the Jodi and cesses. The payment of the amount should be in advance generally in the month of April and failure to pay in time should involve forfeiture of the right of lease. The occupants are in possession and enjoyment of the land from a very long time and it is neither just nor equitable to remove them of the land which they have improved at their cost and labour.

The pujari having complained that the cultivators of the Inam had not paid him any thing for his Service in the Temple, orders were issued to the Amildar vide a view to obtain the necessary particulars on the subject. From the Amildar's reply No 411 and its Encs, it appears that the cultivators of the garden who pay to Sirkar Rs 28-1-4, as mentioned in the table in cols 1 to 9 do not give the temple to any thing, although the institution to which the Inam is belonging, is well kept up. The complaint of the pujari therefore deserves compassion but as this office cannot grant him any relief before he brings a suit, I have informed him that he is at liberty to sue the cultivators in a ~~Suit~~ Court who ch has jurisdiction. The present practice of collecting both the tree tax and land tax being objectionable under the existing rules, I have got the inam measured and assessed at the prevailing rates.
